CONEMAUGH TOWNSHIP

HIGH SCHOOL

DAVIDSVILLE, PA.

Few frontiers remain for man. The challenges that the jungles of Africa, the wild West, and the South Pole once gave have been met and conquered. But now there is one supreme challenge — the challenge of space!

Man has come a long way in his conquest of space. That which was once absurd fantasy is now a reality; that which was considered impossible a hundred years ago has now been done. Yet, we have only scratched the surface of this frontier. We can only guess what tomorrow will bring.

With a bright hope for the future we have produced our yearbook around the theme of space. Although only a few can explore the recesses of space, all of us can be the pioneers of our own lives. We will not be launched by a rocket but by the experience and knowledge we have received in school.

ALMA MATER

Oh, Conemaugh with spacious halls and campus bright and green,
Our fondest memories will remain with each endearing scene.
We'll ever pledge our loyalties,
devoted hearts to you,
To Thee, our Alma Mater, we'll ever more be true.
Hail, hail to the Red and Black,
Hail to our school with a cheer,
We give our best to Conemaugh,
Whose fellowship we hold so dear.

DEDICATION

Without the teachers that have worked with us daily, very few of us could even begin to occupy a worthwhile place in the world that we enter on graduation day. Their instructions, encouragements, and suggestions have played an important part in our mental, social, spiritual and physical development and have helped us to make many of the decisions that determine our futures. Although most people would like to limit a teacher's influence to a particular classroom subject, this is only one of its many phases. It is also strongly felt in extra-curricular activities where teachers serve as advisors and in informal between-class or after-school talks. Even though many of these sessions are very short, they often lead us to the solution of our current problem.

Remembering all of these things, we would like to think of Mr. Robert Dyer, who passed away during this school year, as an example of one of these outstanding people. His influence affected all of us even though many never had him as an instructor for a particular class. His smiling face, his words of encouragement and praise, and his trust in the students will long be remembered. In addition to his regular duties, he served as an advisor to our yearbook for several years.

In an effort to express our appreciation to these people with whom we spend many years of our life, we would dedicate our yearbook to them and to the teaching profession which they represent.

Class of 1966:

For you the depression and World War II are something you read about. Or maybe your parents or other adults reminisce or you see a TV feature or documentary on the 1930 to 1946 period. It was through these difficult days that Conemaugh Township High School was conceived and finally became one of the good schools of our area.

To the people that made this venture of faith a reality, you and future generations of students owe a great debt. Gratitude is a virtue. You can best show your gratitude by using your education to build for yourself a good life and to serve your fellowmen and your country with sincere devotion.

Significantly your high school education is terminated with Commencement. Truly it is only a beginning of the years that are to be. Use your diploma as a key to open doors of greater opportunity. Utilize your basic education as a sound foundation on which to build. Face the future with courage and confidence. Be glad that you are young.

Remember that we are always concerned for you. Carry in your hearts our congratulations and best wishes.

SCHOOL BOARD

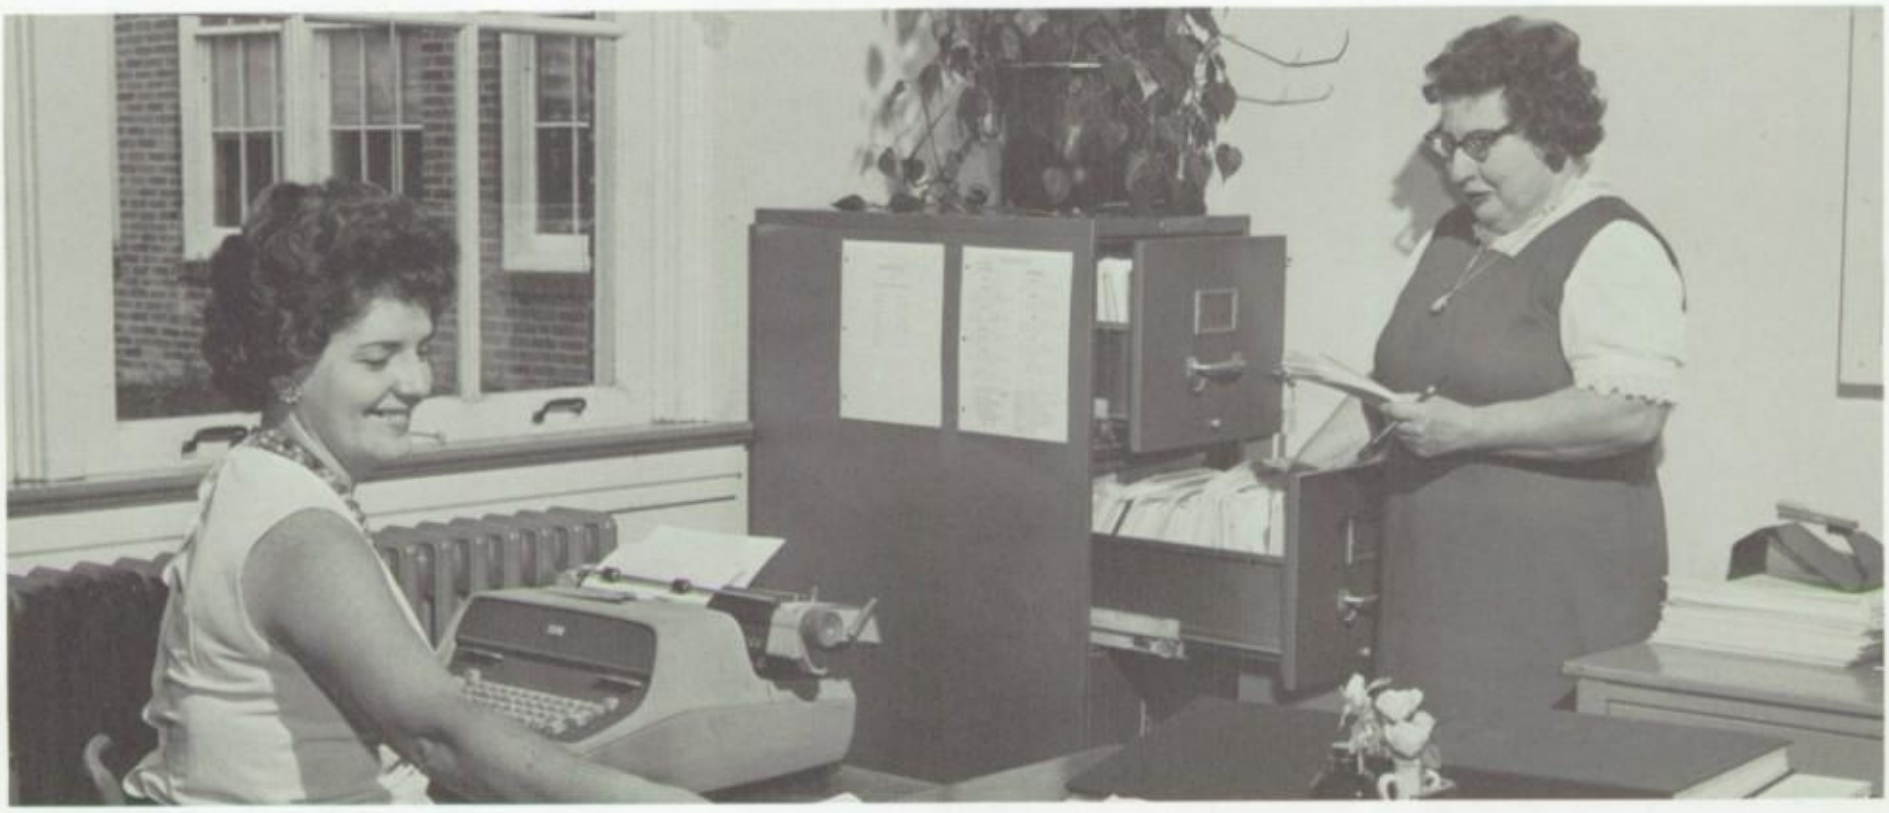
Mr. Brougher, our logistics co-ordinator, orders supplies and pays bills while maintaining a balanced budget.

These people work together as the control center to provide the launching-pad with the equipment necessary to make an education more meaningful.

Collecting the township income tax and serving as Dr. Blough's secretary are only two of the tasks handled by Miss Cortese.

As Mr. Brougher's secretary, Mrs. Thomas does much to aid him in fulfilling the duties of logistics co-ordinator.

OFFICE PERSONNEL



Efficiency well-blended with unlimited humor is the trademark of Mary Jane and Lois, the office secretaries.

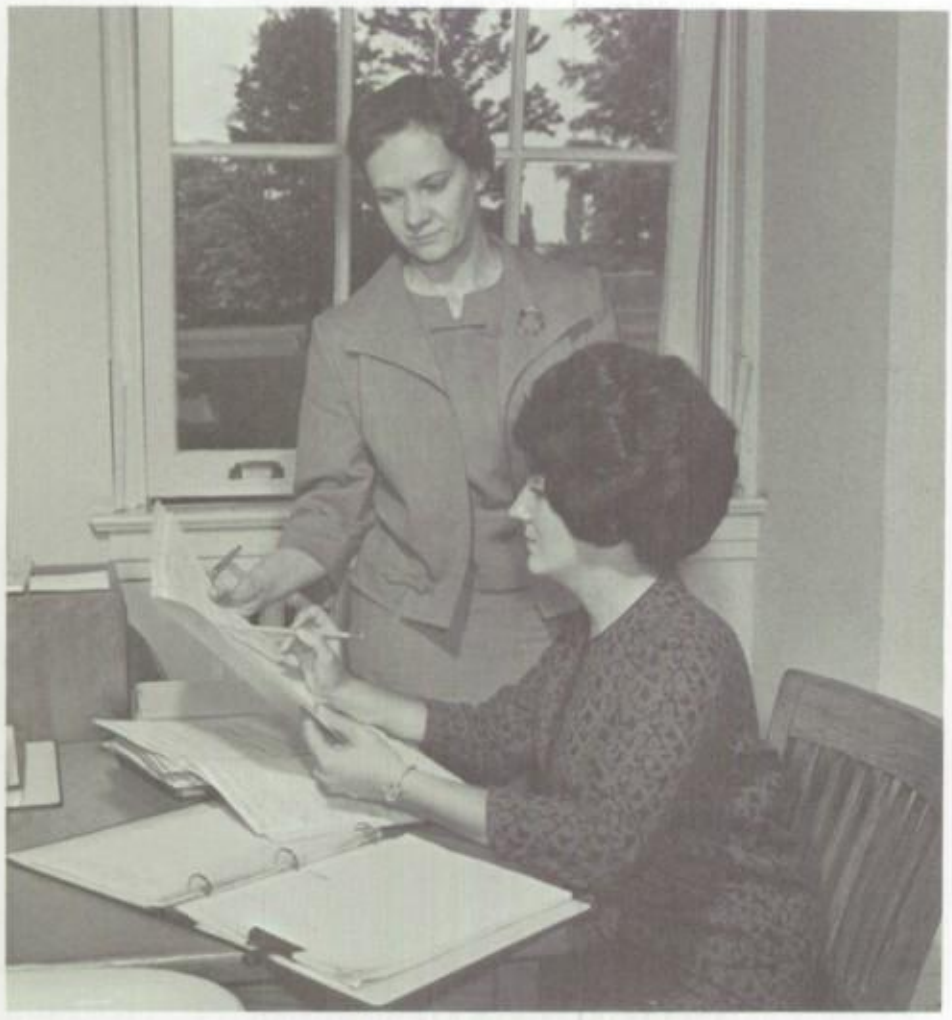
The guidance control is centered around these people who aid the astronauts in choosing their flight courses.

Mrs. Wonder never seems to tire in the face of the many daily questions and problems brought to her by the astronauts.

Dr. Kenneth R. Thomas, University of Pittsburgh, B.S., M.Ed., and D.Ed.; Chairman of the Evaluation Committee. As home-school visitor, Dr. Thomas keeps close tab on the attendance of the future astronauts.

Mr. Beckley, counselor for the stand-by astronauts, has done much to prepare them for their future orbits.

NURSES



Miss Haas and Mrs. Thomas periodically check the students' well-being and care for any emergencies that may arise.

Our nurses and cafeteria staff are often overlooked, but when their services are needed they can promptly be found by the students.

CAFETERIA STAFF

CLASSES

PRESENTING THE CLASS OF 1966

Throughout our years at Conemaugh Township many experiences and memories have come our way. We have gone through six years of English and still cannot find words to describe our Alma Mater.

What can we now say about that first day in September of 1960, when we stepped off the buses into the whole new world that would prepare us for launching. The now familiar classrooms and corridors held hidden mysteries that fall. Lasting friendships began when the students from area elementary schools merged to form the seventh grade class. We really felt proud when we wrote "1966" under our names in the CONNUMACH that spring.

In the fall of 1961 we were no longer the little seventh graders but were now old hands at high school. With a bit of pride we showed the seventh graders the ropes. Not realizing it then, we were being prepared for our future launch.

We really began to feel like a class in 1962. At a meeting in the cafeteria, the deans which we had chosen — Mrs. Margaret Statler and Mr. Joseph Badaczewski — helped us conduct a meeting to choose class officers. We elected Terry Stevens, president; Jim Sleek, vice-president; Barbara Woy, secretary; and Carol Weaver, treasurer; as our first class leaders. The annual magazine campaign became our first class project.

Our sophomore year seemed to roll around faster than the speed of sound. We decided a change of officers was in order, so we elected Jim Sleek, president; John Smaila, vice-president; and Joyce Mishler, treasurer. Barb had neat handwriting, so we kept her as our class secretary. This year we had our first real taste of what it would be like to be astronauts. In December, every study period was spent among the stars; over 500 were made with the help of every available sophomore. They, of course, were used to decorate for our first dance, "Christmas Magic."

In our junior year, always adventurous, we decided to switch class officers again. John Smaila gained the presidency; Jim Sleek, the vice-presidency; Stephanie Huber became our secretary; and Babe Marcinko, our treasurer. For the first time in Conemaugh Township High School history, a prom was to be held outside the school. Since our class sponsored the prom, this became the high spot of the year. After careful deliberation, we chose Green Gables as our prom site and "The Enchanted Forest" as our theme. Needless to say, it was a great success and was considered both unique and beautiful. Our class also presented Just Ducky, one of the two annual school plays. Everyone connected with the play added more memories to the vast amount already collected.

With somewhat of a shock, we realized it was 1965 and time to begin the final countdown. We found the magic that awaits every senior class and welcomed it with open arms. No longer did we wonder why previous seniors were proud of the "senior-section" in the auditorium — it was now ours. No more did we wonder at previous seniors who cried during the Alma Mater at the last football game — ours were now the eyes with tears. In keeping with previous elections, we changed a class officer; Bill King became the new vice-president. The remaining officers kept their positions. Our football season was not the best, but we loyally supported the boys, and Betsy Kelly, our Homecoming Queen, made the season seem brighter. January Thaw, the second play presented by our class, was a commendable production.

Like the little seventh graders of long ago 1960, we, the seniors, are unaware of what terrors and joys the future will hold. But whatever the events, we will face them with the determination and spirit of adventure that have become the trademarks of the class of 1966.

PRESIDENT—John Smaila

DEAN—Mr. Joseph Badaczewski

VICE-PRESIDENT—William King

The junior varsity cheerleaders aid the varsity cheerleaders in launching school spirit among the student body.

The junior high cheerleaders of today are the varsity cheerleaders of tomorrow.

VOCAL MUSIC

All of the vocal music activities are under the direction of Miss Shaffer.

The choir spends long hours in preparing sacred music to be presented to the students and the public. This year for the first time the choir was invited to sing in the Christmas program at Johnstown Central Park.

These senior members have made a large contribution to the success of the choir.

The choir alternates must always be prepared to replace any regular members who are absent.

MIXED OCTET—Terry Spiker, Sherwood Jones, Bill Dively, Dick Stuver, Joan McKowan, Amy Shaulis, Cynthia Wingard, and Betty Lehman.

SENIOR HIGH GIRLS' TRIO—Susan Stahl, Suzi Lehman, and Regena Thomas.

Alternate Majorettes Debbie Fox and Diana Dipre are always ready to take the place of absent regulars.

COOKIES FOR VIET NAM

This year the senior high student council conducted a cookie drive for the servicemen in Viet Nam. The overwhelming student response prompted many letters of thanks from the men who received the cookies.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

A crown and roses, symbols of royalty, are given to Betsy Kelly, 1965-1966 Homecoming Queen. Joe Zambotti, senior high student president, makes the presentation while Jean Sherbine, 1964-1965 Homecoming Queen, watches.

Our senior high marching band is one of the largest bands in the county. But size isn't everything, and hard work counts, too. Under Mr. Salay's direction, their labor makes half-time a well remembered event.

BAND

The concert band practices diligently all year to present concert and other events.

The black and red uniforms, the formations and the crisp music are familiar sights and sounds to the students at Conemaugh Township and the residents of Davidsville.

With a whirl of batons and a brisk march, these majorettes lead the senior high band.

TROMBONE TRIO—David Bowman, Barry Weir, and Dennis Kniss.

STRING ENSEMBLE—Betty Wertz, Joanne Yvanek, Dennis Kniss, Adrian Yoder, and Debbie Blough.

Football games, parades, and assemblies will be the subjects for many happy memories of these senior band members.

TRUMPET QUARTET—Jim Costantino, Sherwood Jones, Terry Spiker, and Jim Krope.

SAX QUINTET—John Gindlesperger, Rosalie Harmon, Stephen Horwat, Mary Kentula, and Suzanne Stewart.

The orchestra gives students an opportunity to become acquainted with both classical and popular music.

The participation of the assembly band during pep rallies adds to the enthusiasm of the students.

Junior high band gives these students the experience of playing in a group while becoming better musicians individually.

JUNIOR HIGH TRUMPET QUARTET—Don Cotchen, Larry Beatty, Wayne Berkey, and Brad Steffey.

JUNIOR HIGH SAX TRIO—Shirley Knavel, Donna Sleek, and Susan Salay.

JUNIOR HIGH TROMBONE TRIO—Keith Smith, Richard Helsel, and Robert Rouser.

"JUST DUCKY"

Wilbur always was hard to wake up!

It's about time for Betty Lou's walk to the zoo, and Wilbur looks as if he should be there.

Aunt Mary's alarm is apparent when Wilbur introduces her to his pet snake and worm.

Wilbur is pleasantly surprised to learn that his father and Hercules are sure to make his play a success.

The Junior Class presented "Just Ducky," a three-act comedy, on April 23, 1965. The Maxwell family is plunged into chaos as the result of Betty Lou's letter, a practical joke sent to the local lonely hearts' column. However, the letter backfires and creates additional misunderstandings that heighten the confusion at the Maxwell household.

OLD – FASHIONED CHRISTMAS

Standing around the Christmas tree, these sophomores seem to be thinking that the hours spent in decorating were worthwhile.

The crowded dance floor indicates the success of an old-fashioned Christmas dance.

Seniors find the refreshment table a pleasant interlude from the dancing.

Both socializing and dancing are enjoyed by the faculty and school board members.

The excellent music of the Trylons combined with the sophomores' hard work made the 1965 Christmas dance a success.

THE ENCHANTED FOREST

Green Gables was chosen as the site of the 1965 Junior-Senior Prom, the tirst ever to be held away from the school.

With their dates, our class president, John Smaila, and vice-president, Jim Sleek, enjoy the results of their efforts.

The beautiful Tuscany Room provided a pleasant atmosphere for conversation.

The members of the faculty seem to find pleasure in their roles as chaperones.

SPORTS

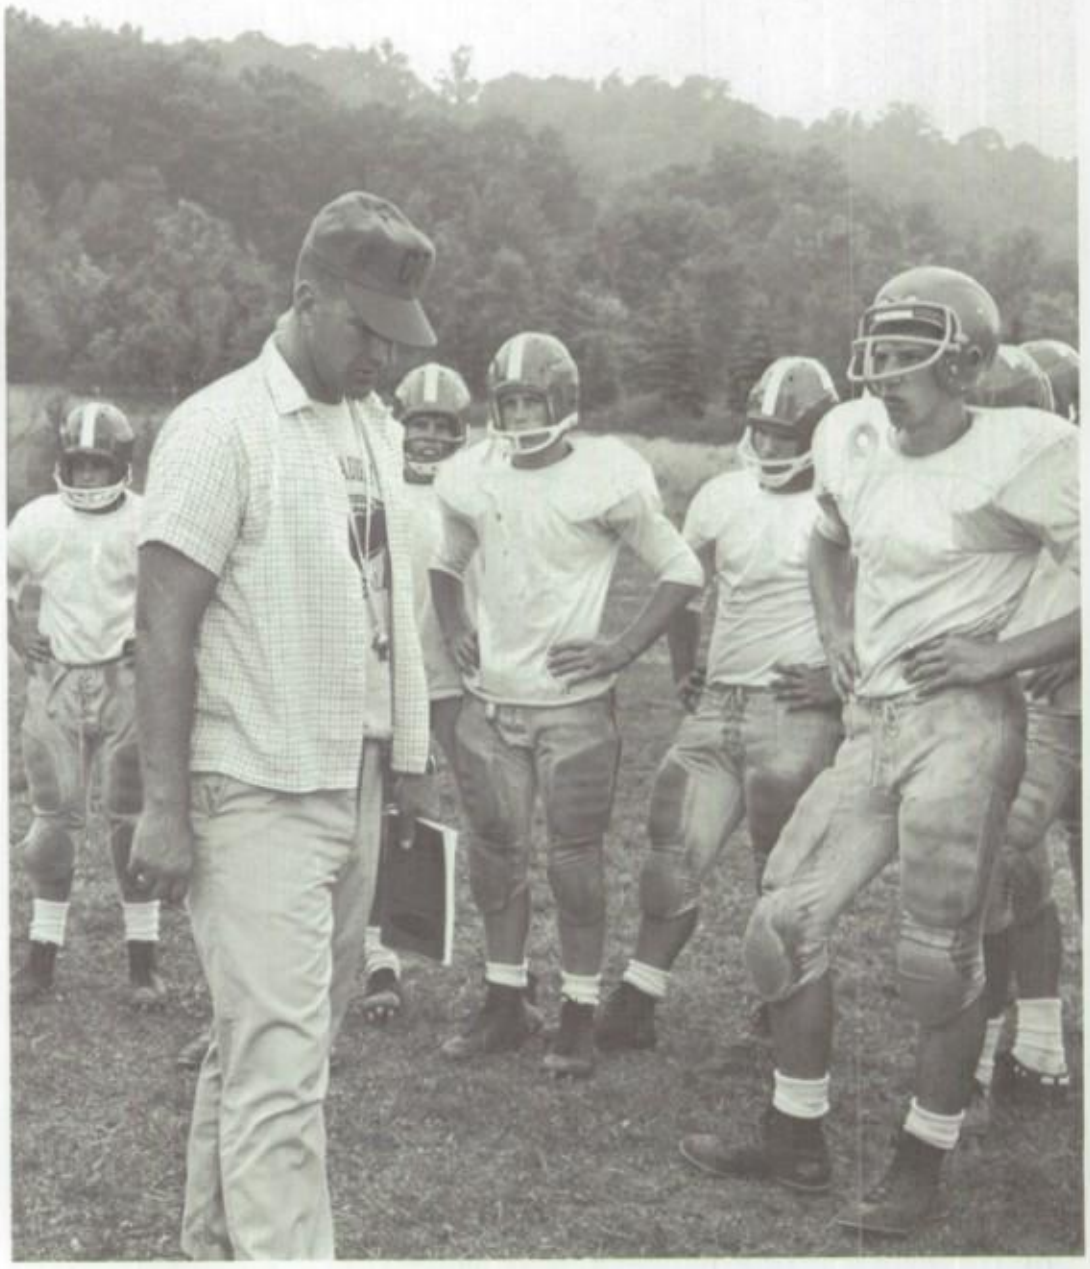
It looks as if John is being educated in the school of hard knocks. Oh well, John, take a break; you deserve one.

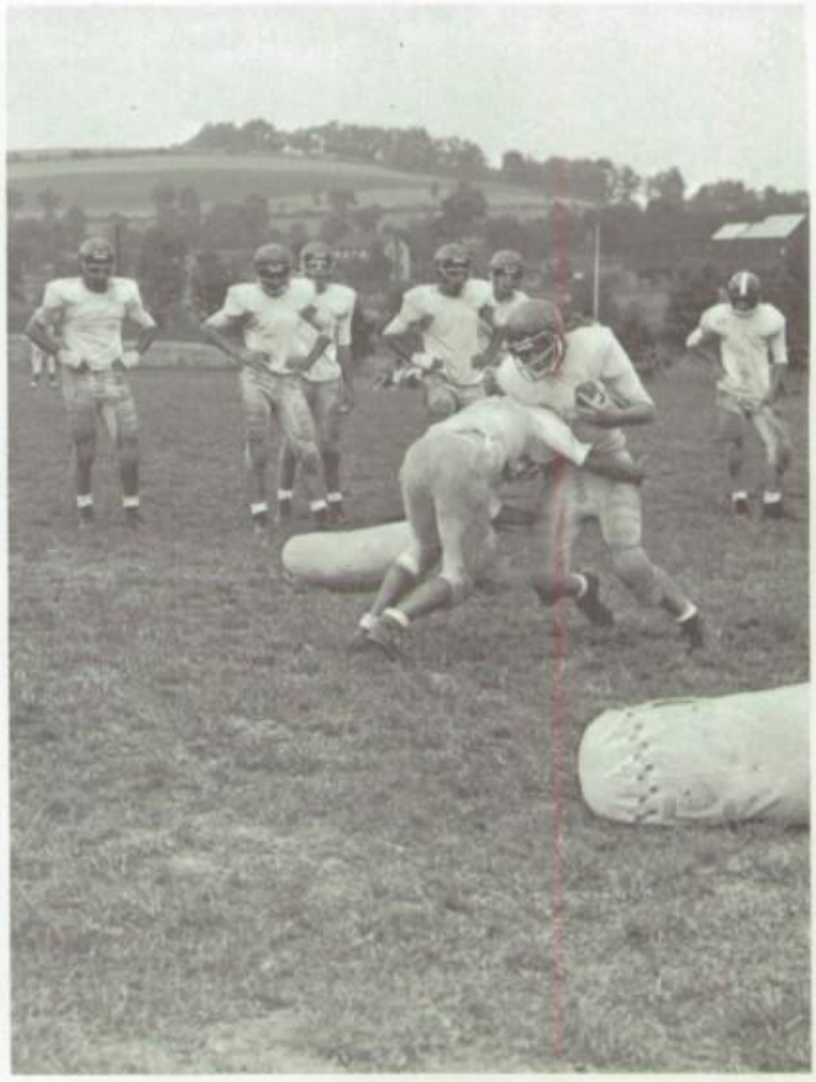


"Well, we may be able to use the double-wing formation in a situation like that."

It sure is easier to make a touchdown with two footballs and only Chauncey to stop us.

CAMP

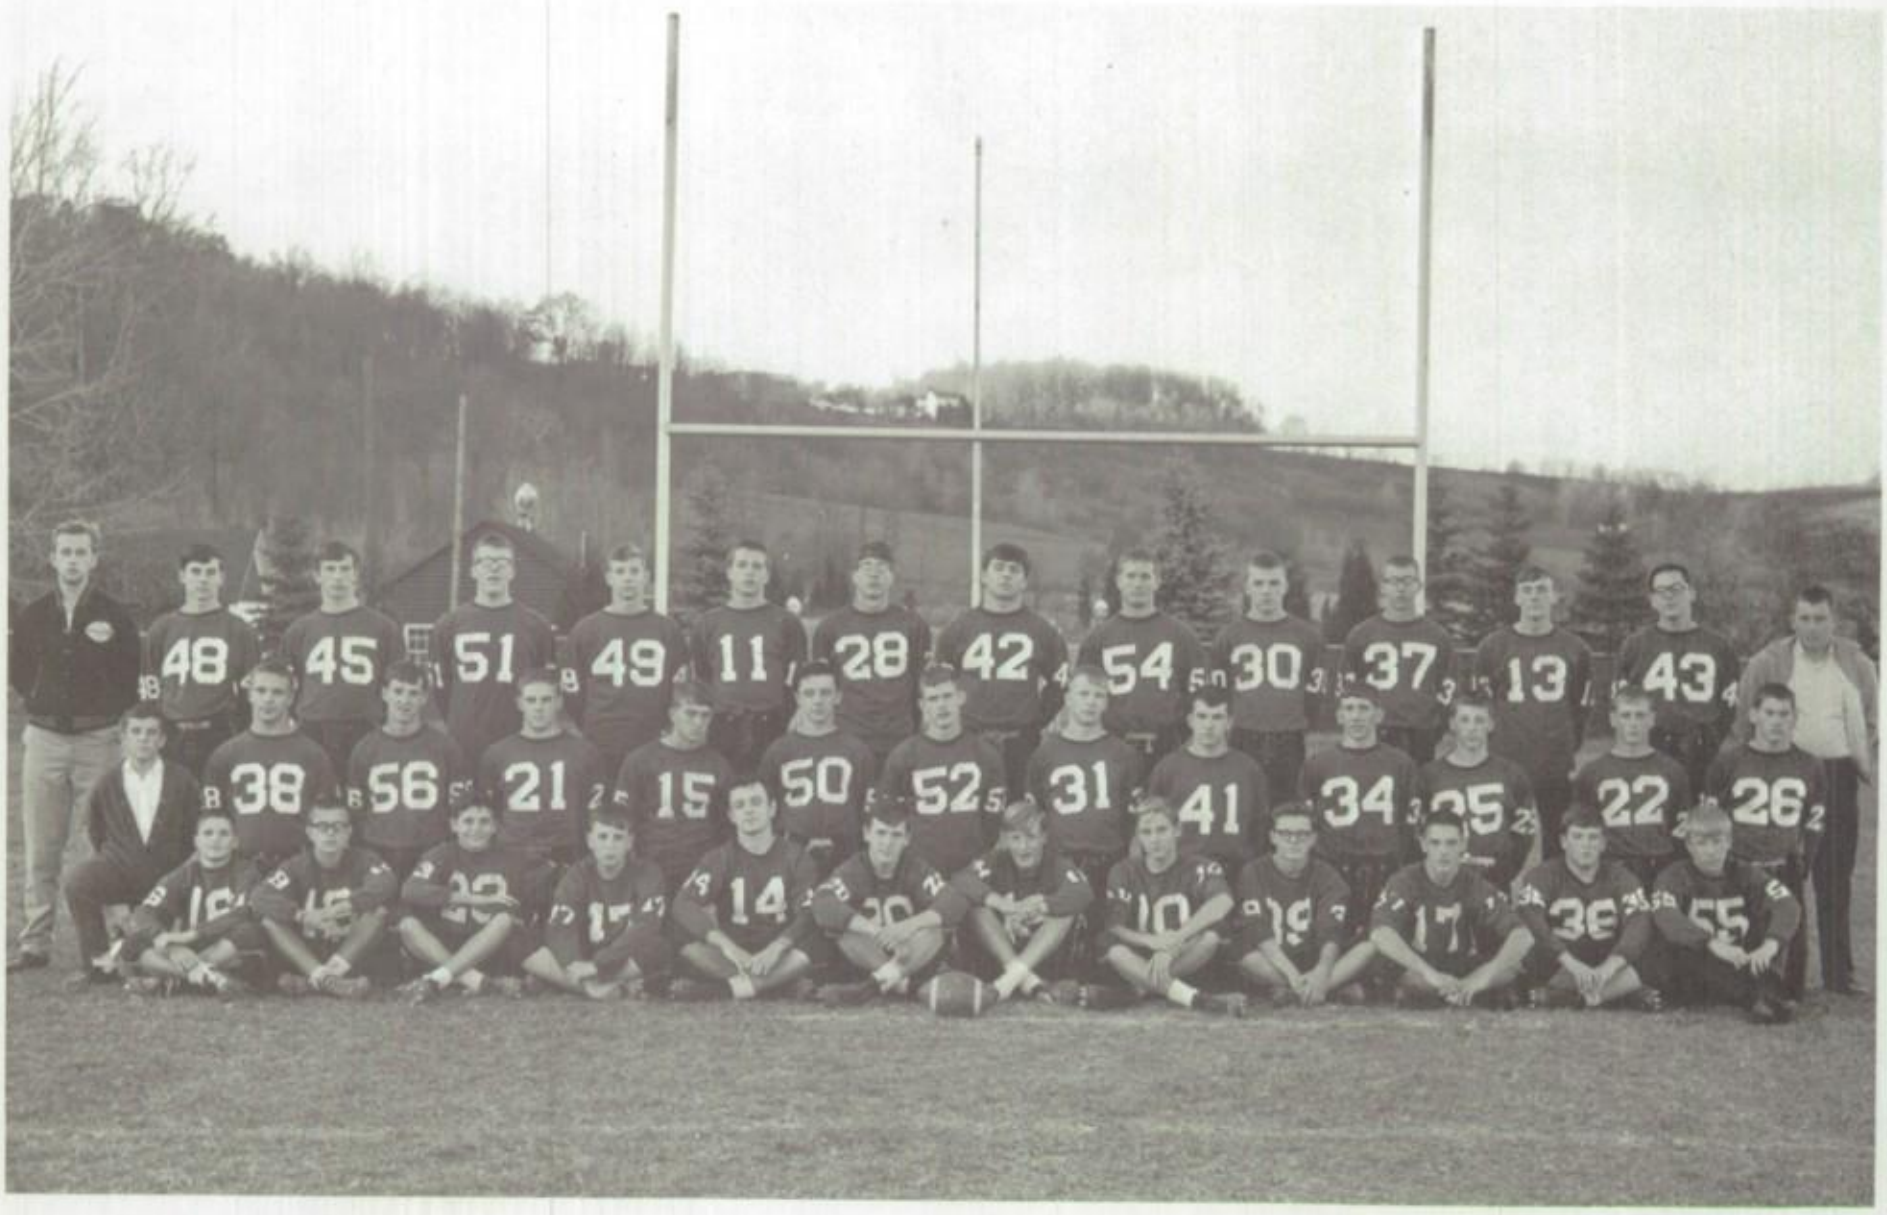
Push it back! Push it back! Way back!



Even with a lot of practice, football has its ups and downs.

Oh! give me a home where the hot showers foam, where the boys from football camp stay. Where seldom is heard an encouraging word, and the coaches are grouchy all day.

VARSITY



ROW ONE: P. Stetz, W. Bodziak, A. Seganos, R. Simchok, D. Christie, R. Telenko, R. Miller, M. Phillips, D. Thomas, W. Reckner, L. Seesholtz, W. Howard. ROW TWO: R. Snyder, G. Singer, J. Shawley, D. Horner, B. Blank, J. Telenko, D. Roseman, D. Fuller, C. May, W. King, J. Risch, C. King, D. Jodon. ROW THREE: Manager J. Primavera, F. Vitko, R. Govier, W. Shank, R. Blough, T. Kuharchek, C. Trexel, P. Klimek, R. Thomas, W. Intihar, D. Nestor, D. Williamson, R. Fuller, R. Mishler.

These boys really support Coach Badaczewski.

JUNIOR HIGH

Under the direction of Coach Kogut, the freshman team compiled a 3-3 record and is now eagerly awaiting next season when it will become part of the varsity.

With the trademark of a hard game still on them, Coach Gehosky's eighth-grade gridders completed the season with a 3-5 slate.

Coach Volk's supervision and an undefeated season started these seventh graders off to a bright football career.

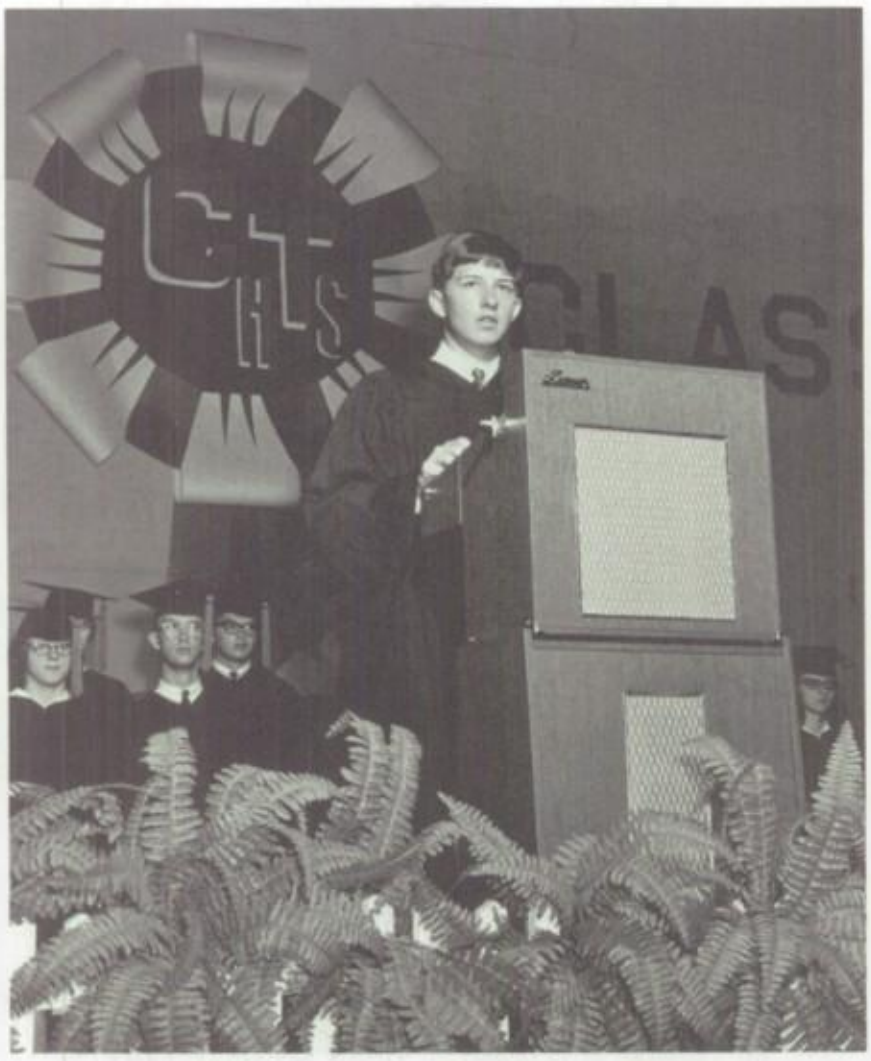
CLASS OF 1966

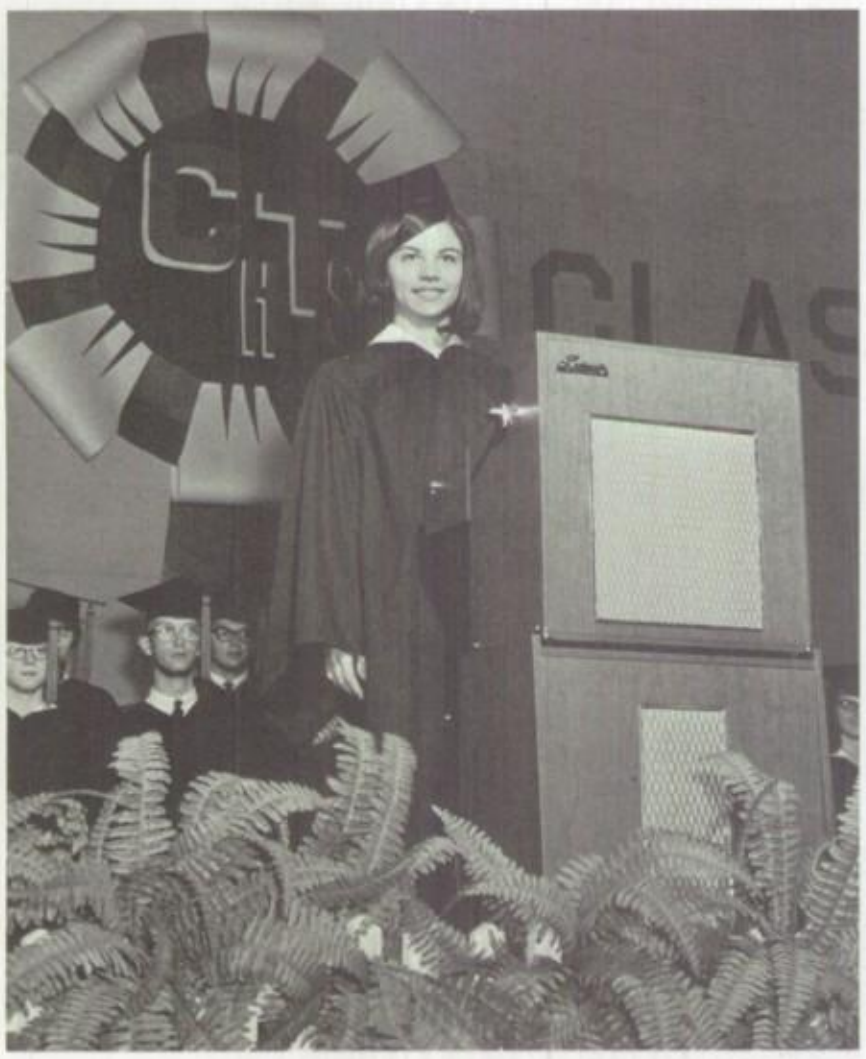
The clasp of hands and the presentation of diplomas send the 160 members of the Class of 1966 to meet the challenges that await them. The Commencement address, "Raw Materials of Life," was delivered by Dr. D. Willard Zahn on May 31. Diplomas were presented by Dr. Telford B. Blough and Mr. Donald W. Drenner.

These pleased seniors admire the end product of twelve years of hard work.

STUDENT SPEAKERS MAY 31 1966

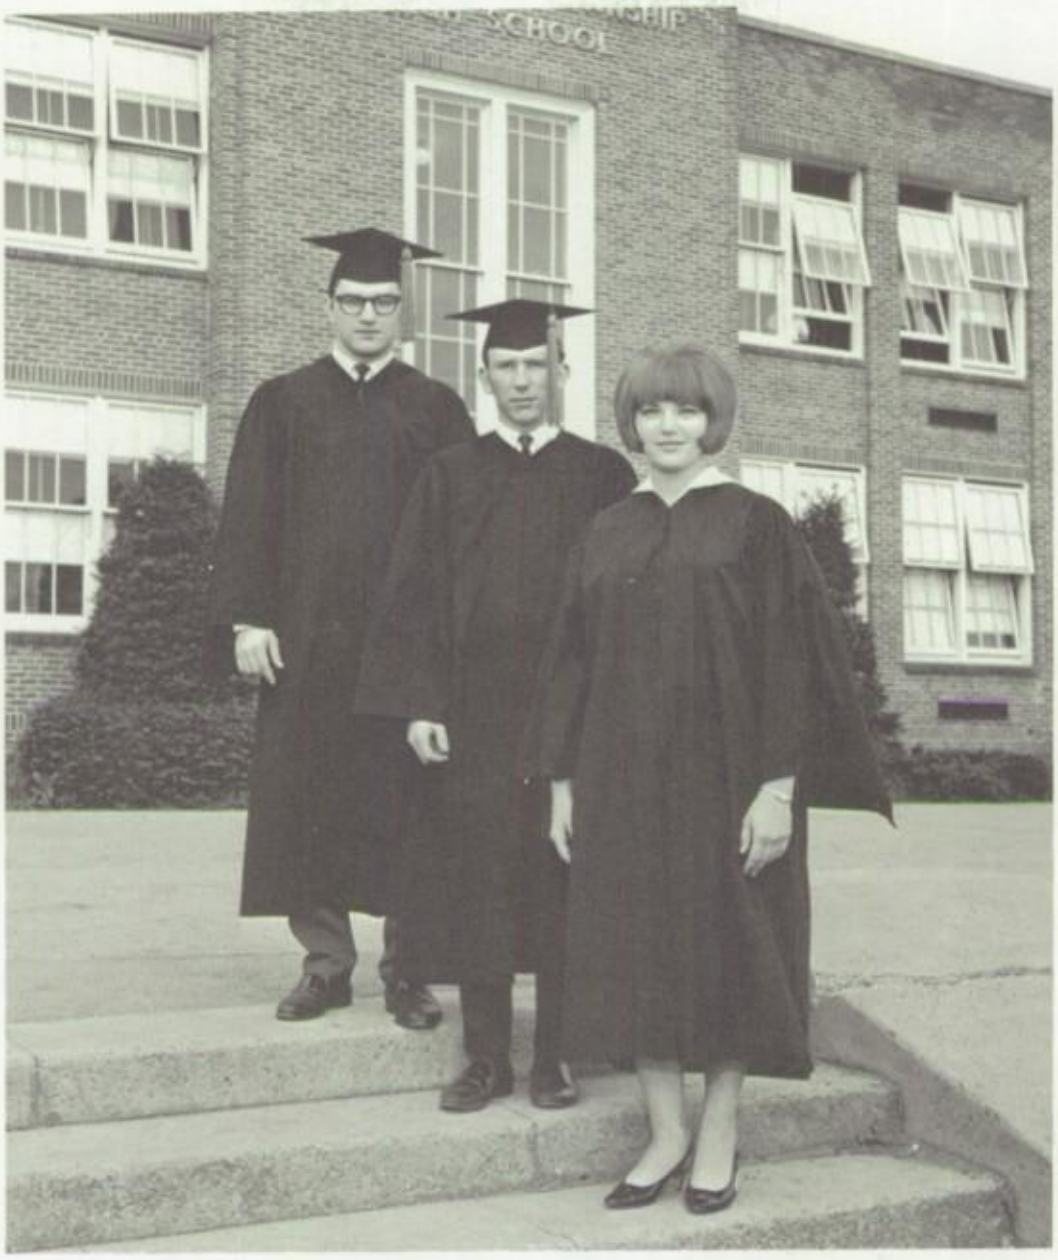


Terry Stevens spoke of the five per cent of the graduating class who will enter the military services.



The forty-five per cent of the class who will further their education was Deborah Blough's topic of discussion.

The various occupations of the remaining fifty-five per cent were discussed by Sallie Foust.



SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: John Smaila, president; Bill King, vice-president; Mary K. Marcinko, treasurer. ABSENT: Stephanie Huber, secretary.

Betty Lehman and Keith Dick were among the students who received recognition at the Awards Assembly, May 20.

"JANUARY THAW"

Mr. Gage, a volunteer fireman, recounts his heroic rescue of a cow trapped in a flaming barn.

An evening conversation with Uncle Walter brings the long-absent Rockwoods up to date on the community news.

"January Thaw," a three-act comedy, was presented by the senior class on December 2, 1965. The Gage family is plunged into turmoil when the Rockwood family, thought deceased, returns to claim the Gage home. Barbara Gage's alleged elopement with Matt Rockwood brings matters to a climax which creates a surprise ending.

MY FUNNY VALENTINE

Senior class president, John Smalia, crowns Sophia Mosca, Valentine queen, as junior princess, Linda Kaufman, and sophomore princess, Sue Stutzman, look on.

Soft music and dimmed lights create a romantic atmosphere for the Valentine dance.

Even Charlie Brown wore a smile, indicating the success of the evening.

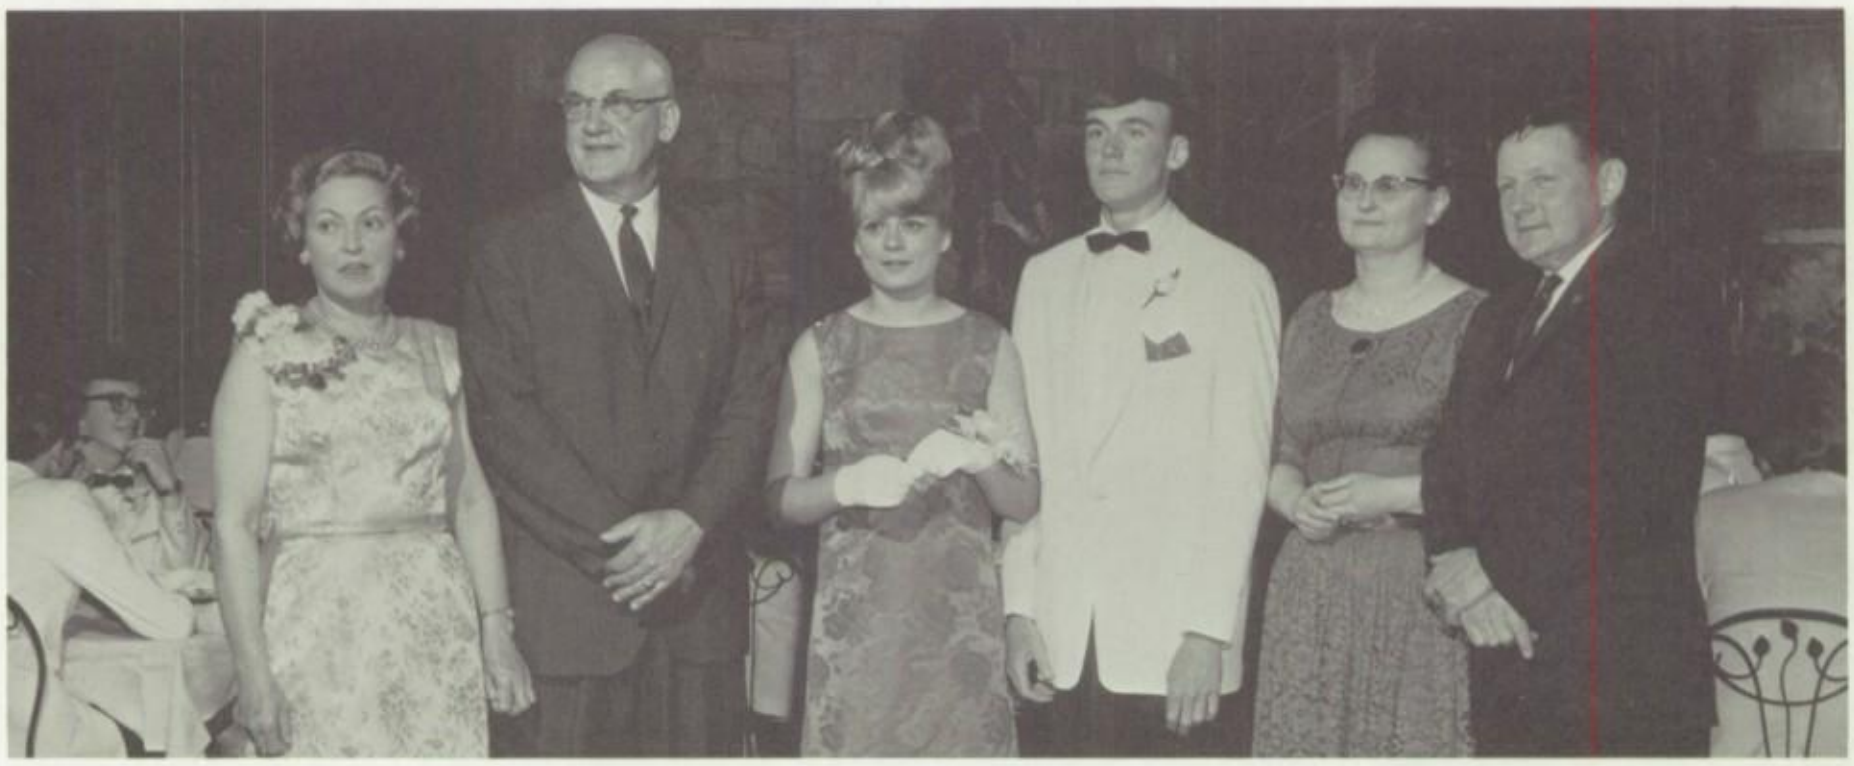
TROPICAL

Light conversation between dances enhances the evening and increases the enjoyment of all.

The Clubmen provided excellent music for the successful 1966 prom.

Quiet dancing gives everyone a chance to capture the romantic mood of the evening.

MOONLIGHT



Junior class deans, Mr. Fuller and Mrs. McFeaters, and class president, Dennis Williamson, put forth much effort to make the dance successful.

Arriving at Green Gables, many couples look forward to a pleasant evening.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held in the beautiful Tuscany Room on May 14, 1966.

GOLF

The senior members of the baseball team will miss the arduous practices after school each night.

Do I aim?

Don't worry, boys, even Roberto Clemente sits out some of the games.

CROSS COUNTRY

ROW ONE: R. Constable, D. Knight, D. Constable, P. Gindlesperger, W. Foust, G. Mock, K. Stahl, J. Constable. ROW TWO: I. Hobba, R. Bowman, R. Blough, D. Liska, R. Yvanek, R. Feightner, D. Keafer.
